SOHO, UES, PARK SLOPE, BED-STUY—The Real Estate Board of New York has finally joined the parade of second-quarter market reports, and what did we learn? When it comes to condos, Soho led the way in average sales price, at $2.746 million. In Brooklyn, REBNY said Park Slope's $688,000 was the highest condo average. In terms of total number of sales, the Upper East Side had the highest Manhattan volume, at 459. Bed-Stuy had 106 to lead Brooklyn. [CurbedWire Inbox]
