Exec' committee changes at REBNY

The Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY) recently announced changes to its 2010 Executive Committee.

Frederick W. Peters, president of Warburg Realty Partnership, has been named vice president, Residential Brokerage Division.

In addition, Robert A. Knakal, chairman of Massey Knakal Realty Services is now vice president, Commercial Brokerage Division.

Other changes to the Executive Committee include the addition of David W. Levinson, chairman & CEO, L&L Holdings LLC, as a new Member at Large for 2010. Bruce A. Beal, Jr. executive vice president of Related Companies, is also a Member at Large for 2010.

Stephen Ross, CEO of Related Companies, who has served as REBNY Chairman since 2007, is now Chairperson Emeritus as Mary Ann Tighe, chief executive officer, New York Tri-State Region of CB Richard Ellis begins her tenure as REBNY Chairman this year.

"REBNY is pleased to have Fred Peters as the new vice president for the Residential Brokerage Division. Fred has been an active member of REBNY's Board of Governors for many years, and is an influential member of the residential real estate community. In his new role as vice president, Fred will continue to be a vital part of REBNY's governing body," said Steven Spinola, REBNY president.

Spinola added, "I would like to congratulate Fred, as well as Bob Knakal, who we're pleased to have as vice president for the Commercial Brokerage Division, and new Members at Large, David Levinson and Bruce Beal.

"Their counsel and industry expertise will be invaluable to the Executive Committee and will help lead the city's real estate industry as we navigate these challenging times."

Frederick Peters has served on REBNY's Board of Governors since 1995. Robert Knakal has been a REBNY Governor since 2000. This is the first time each has been appointed to a title position on the Executive Committee.
