New York Real Estate Board Launches ResidentialNYC.com.

If you're looking to buy an apartment or a house in Manhattan there's a new place on line to see new listings The New York Real Estate Board launched ResidentialNYC.com that lets you see about half the properties up for sale in the city and a smaller chunk of the properties available in the other boroughs. The group that runs it hopes to make the web site one stop shopping for people looking for a home in New York.
